Product Description:

The temple length of these frames is adjustable, making them easy to fit to your child's head. This ensures that they won't slide down or fall off, even during active play. The frames weigh just 15.7G, so they won't cause any discomfort or strain on your child's face. Our frames come in a variety of colors, so your child can choose their favorite or match their personal style. The metal and PPSU materials used in these frames are durable and long-lasting, so they can withstand the wear and tear of daily use. We offer these frames in various sizes to fit children of all ages and face shapes. Our frames are designed to provide a comfortable fit that won't slip or pinch, even during extended wear.
