Product Description

Plastic Frame Metal Legs TR 90 Frames For Men And Women 1529

Product Description:

The TR frame material is known for its flexibility and strength, making it a popular choice for eyewear manufacturers. It is also environmentally friendly, as it is made from a thermoplastic material that is easily recyclable. One of the best features of this TR frame product is the wide range of colors available. You can choose from various colors that will match your personality and style, ensuring that you will find the perfect pair of glasses to suit your needs. The 1529 model is also designed with practicality in mind. Its rectangle shape provides a classic and timeless look, while also providing ample space for prescription lenses. The unisex design makes it suitable for both men and women, making it a versatile choice.
