Product Description

Ultra-lightweight Modern Trendsetters TR 90 Full Rim Frame 6701

Product Description:

The TR Frame is an excellent choice for those who value durability and comfort. TR material is known for its strength and flexibility, making it resistant to damage caused by impact or stress. This means that the TR Frame is highly durable and can withstand daily wear and tear without losing its shape or structure.

Furthermore, the Full Rim design of the TR Frame provides added protection for the lenses, making it an ideal choice for those who want to ensure their lenses stay intact. The TR Frame also features a sleek and modern design that is sure to make a statement and complement any outfit or style.

In summary, the TR Frame is a high-quality and durable Full Rim frame made of TR material. Its rectangle shape and size of 50-18-145 mm make it a perfect fit for most people, and its lightweight design ensures comfort even after extended periods of wear. The TR Frame is an excellent choice for those who value durability and style and want a frame that can withstand daily wear and tear without losing its shape or structure.
