Product Description

Product Description:

The ZTO 129 model is a stylish pair of glasses that is sure to catch the attention of everyone in the room. These glasses are designed with an adjustable temple that provides a comfortable fit for all head sizes. The temple is made of lightweight material that ensures that you can wear these glasses for extended periods without feeling any discomfort.

The Beta Titanium Glasses weigh only 12G, making them one of the lightest glasses available in the market. This is made possible by the use of beta titanium material, which is known for its lightweight and durable properties. As a result, you can wear these glasses all day without feeling any pressure on your nose or ears.
