Product Description:

One of the key features of these pure titanium frames is their full rim design. This design ensures that the lenses are securely held in place, providing better protection for the lenses and making the glasses more durable. The full rim also adds an extra layer of style and sophistication to the glasses.

The model number for these glasses is 88308. This model has become increasingly popular among customers due to its superior quality and durability. The pure titanium frames are lightweight, making them comfortable to wear for extended periods. The weight of the glasses is only 10 grams, which is significantly lighter compared to other eyewear options in the market.

These pure titanium optical frames are suitable for both men and women. The unisex design makes it a versatile option for those who value quality and style. The frames are designed to fit most face shapes, making it a suitable option for a wide range of customers.
