Product Description

Product Description:

These glasses are made from Beta Titanium, a high-quality material that is both lightweight and strong. This means that the glasses are not only comfortable to wear, but also durable and long-lasting. Beta Titanium is also known for its flexibility, making it easy to adjust the glasses to fit your face perfectly.

The Model ZTO 9202 glasses have a size of 49-18-149, which is a great fit for most face shapes. The 49mm lens width provides ample coverage without looking overwhelming, while the 18mm bridge width ensures that the glasses sit comfortably on the nose. The 149mm temple length ensures that the glasses stay securely in place without causing any discomfort.

Whether you're looking for a stylish accessory to complete your outfit or a functional pair of glasses to help you see clearly, the Beta Titanium Glasses Model 9202 is the perfect choice. The lightweight and durable design, combined with the classic retro style, make these glasses a great addition to any wardrobe. If you appreciate literature and art, these glasses are sure to complement your personal style perfectly.
